

WEDDING CEREMONY OPTIONS

Choose one from the #Optional passages, and/or feel free to suggest readings or vows that are special to you.

PRESENTATION OF THE BRIDE

#1 Who joins this couple in the celebration of their marriage today?

Respondent, "We do" or "I do"

#2 Who gives their blessings on this marriage and the joining of this family?

Respondent, "We do" or "I do"

#3 We are here because we love _____ & _____.

We rejoice that they have found each other and that through each other,
They have come to know the power of love.

We are gathered here today to support and share that love.

We celebrate this union of their hearts, minds, bodies & souls and wish them great joy.

#4 Friends, we are gathered here today in the presence of God to share with _____ and _____ in the most important time of their lives.

In the time they have been together, their love has grown & matured and now, they shall begin their journey together as husband & wife.

OPENING POEM OR READING

#1 Love is patient, love is kind.

It does not envy, it does not boast

It is not proud, it is not rude.

It is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered.

It keeps no record of wrongs.

Love does not delight in evil but rejoices in the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always preserves.

(From I Corinthians 13:1-13)

Love is not possession or ownership.

Love arises out of our own sense of well-being and our connectedness to all things.

Therefore, love is generous and yields freedom & trust. Out of love,

We learn to use our gifts to heal and serve, to create peace around us, to honor all that is sacred in life, to bless what we encounter and wish all beings well.

May you be filled with loving-kindness.

May you be well, mind, body & spirit.

May you be peaceful and at ease

May you share a lifetime of happiness.

#2 A mountain needs a valley to be complete.
The valley does not make the mountain less, but more.
And the valley is more a valley because it has a mountain towering over it.
So let it be that way with both of you.
May you need one another, not to fill you emptiness but to know your fullness.
May you want one another, but not out of lack.
May you entice one another, but not compel one another.
May you embrace one another, but not encircle one another.
May you succeed in all your endeavours, yet not fail in little graces.
May you look for things to praise and pay no attention to small faults.
May you have happiness and may you find it making each other happy.
May you have love, and may you find it loving each other.

#3 "Marriage" from Kahlil Gibran's The Prophet

You were born together, and together you shall be forever more.
You shall be together when the white wings of death scatter your days.
But let there be spaces in your togetherness.
And let the winds of heaven dance between you.
Love one another, but make not a bond of love;
Let it rather be a moving sea between the shores of your souls.
Fill each other's cup, but drink not from one cup.
Give one another of your bread but eat not from the same loaf.
Sing and dance together and be joyous, but let each one of you be alone.
Even as the strings of a lute are alone though they quiver with the same music.
Give your heart, but not into each other's keeping.
For only the hands of life can contain your hearts.
And stand together yet not too near together:
For the pillars of the temple stand apart,
And the oak tree and the cypress grow not in each other's shadow.

#4 By Elizabeth Barret Browning:

I love you not only for what you are, but for what I am when I am with you.
I love you not only for what you make of yourself, but for what you are making of me.
I love you for the part of me you bring out;
I love you for putting your hands on my heaped up heart and passing over all the foolish weak things.... and for drawing out the light, all the beautiful belongings that no one else had looked quite far enough to find.
I love you because you have done more than any creed could have done to make me good and more than any fate could of done to make me happy.
You have done it without a touch, without a word, without a sign.
You have done it by being yourself.

OPTIONAL

As families and friends, you form the community of support that surrounds _____ and _____.

Each of you, by your presence here today, is being called upon to uphold them in honoring and loving each other.

Always stand beside them, never between them.

Offer them your love and support, not your judgment.

Encourage them with your kindness and loving hearts, and honor this marriage into which they have come to be joined today.

---

What is marriage?

It is the most beautiful thing that can happen between two people in love.

A marriage is more than just husband and wife.

It is a bridge, which allows the love of two special people to give meaning and worth and wonder to life.

It is a continual process of building; of shaping; of communicating; of caring.

It is the deepest and sweetest understanding.

It is sharing today's and tomorrows together and making each one more treasured and more complete than anyone could make alone.

A marriage is a home interwoven with hopes and memories and dreams.

The thankfulness and love it can bring have no comparison.

“He’s not perfect. You aren’t either, and the two of you will never be perfect.

But, if he can make you laugh at least once, causes you to think twice, and if he admits to being human and making mistakes, hold onto him and give him the most you can.

He isn’t going to quote poetry, he’s not thinking about you every moment, but he will give you a part of him that he knows you could break.

Don’t hurt him, don’t change him, and don’t expect for more than he can give. Don’t analyze.

Smile when he makes you happy, yell when he makes you mad, and miss him when he’s not there.

Love hard when there is love to be had. Because perfect guys don’t exist, but there’s always one guy that is perfect for you.”

SECOND READING

#1 From “The Art of Marriage “ by William A Peterson

A good marriage must be created.

In the marriage, the little things are the big things.

It is remaining young at heart with a desire to hold hands.

It is remembering to say “I Love you” at least once a day.

It is never going to sleep angry.
It is remaining grateful for each other each and every day.
It is having a mutual sense of values and common objectives.
It is standing together, facing the world.
It is doing things for each other in the spirit of joy.
It is making the commitment to forgive and forget.
It is not only marrying the right person,
It is being the right partner

#2 The Bridge Across Forever by Richard Bach

A soul mate is someone who has locks that fit our keys, and keys to fit our locks.
When we feel safe enough to open the locks, our truest selves step out and we can be completely and honestly who we are; we can be loved for who we are and not for who we're pretending to be.
Each unveils the best part of the other.
No matter what else goes wrong around us, with that one person we're safe in our own paradise.
Our soul mate is someone who shares our deepest longings, our sense of direction.
When we're two balloons, and together our direction is up, chances are we've found the right person.
Our soul mate is the one who makes life come to life.

#3 "Gravitation cannot be held responsible for people falling in love.
How on earth can you explain in terms of chemistry, and physics, so important biological phenomenon, as first love?
Put your hand on a stove for a minute and it seems like an hour.
Sit with that special girl for an hour and it seems like a minute.
That's relativity"

Albert Einstein

#4 "What if all we have ever wanted isn't hiding in some secret far away dream, but inside of us now, as we breathe one another and find home in the way our arms always seem to fit perfectly around the spaces between us?

What if we are the answer, and love was the question?

What if all this time, it was us you were supposed to find?

I am filled with wanderings, questions and doubt, but of one thing I am certain;
It will always be you that gives flight to the butterflies inside me, calm to the sea I have become, and hope to the darkness all around us.
It is you and it has always been you...
You that soothes and excites and spreads joy like rainfall on the already damp earth;
You that pulled me from the longest sleep and kissed my tired eyelids awake.

If life is a question mark, then you my love, are the proud and bold period that is typed with certainty."

Destiny is a mysterious thing.

No matter what you do or where you go, you cannot avoid it, and no matter how hard you try, even putting forth your greatest effort, you cannot force it to happen before its time.

This occasion we witness today is the destiny of two souls.

There is not a force in the universe that could have kept you apart, and there is nothing, they could have done to come together sooner.

Each of you had to live your lives, lives that were stepping stones that have led to this moment in time, this uniting of hearts and minds that shall be forever more.

This occasion we celebrate today is destiny of two souls.

Yes, destiny is a marvellous and mysterious thing!

As you are the Moon of his life, he shall be your Sun and Stars.

Your love shall be as ever present as those two celestial bodies ... even though they are sometimes hidden from one another's sight.

Your love will be the guiding force that charts the course of your tomorrows, holds your world together in difficult times, and will make life itself shine bolder and brighter than we human beings have a right to dream of.

"People are like cities"

Wild Awake, Hilary T. Smith

We all have alleys and gardens and secret rooftops and places where daisies sprout between the sidewalk cracks, but most of the time all we let each other see is a postcard glimpse of a skyline or a polished square.

Love lets you find those hidden places in another person, even the ones they didn't know were there, even the ones they wouldn't have thought to call beautiful themselves.

CONVOCATION

(The action of calling people together for a large formal ceremony)

#1 There are no obligations on earth more sweet or tender than those you are about to assume.

There are no vows more solemn than those you are about to make.

There Is no human institution more sacred than that of the commitment you are about to make.

From this day forward, you shall be each other's home, comfort & refuge.

Your marriage will be strengthened by mutual love & respect.

#2 Marriage is as ancient an institution as the human family.

A wedding is more than a social event or a mere formal observance.

It is the celebration of a couple's highest aspirations.

A relationship this sacred must not be entered into casually or frivolously, but thoughtfully and deliberately.

It is into this covenant that _____ and _____ come now to be joined.

#3 Christian marriage is not living merely for each other; it is two persons, uniting & joining hands to serve God.

Seek His kingdom first, His righteousness, and he will add all other things to you.

Do not expect perfection from each other—that belongs solely to God.

You need not minimize each other's weaknesses, but always be swift to praise & magnify each other's points of comeliness & strength, and see each other through kind and patient eyes.

May you never take each other's love for granted.

#4 Treat your marriage as a living thing.

Treat it with respect and nourish it with whatever it needs to keep it young and vibrant.

Remember to be kind to one another.

Strive to be gentle with criticism and generous with praise.

Be empathetic and trusting.

Allow yourselves to transcend your own limitations through the love you have for each other.

It is love which shatters all limitations and dissolves all fears.

What has brought you together will keep you whole for love is life's greatest emotion and its finest work.

#5 Convocation Union by Robert Fulgham

You have known each other from the first glance of acquaintance to this point of commitment.

At some point, you decided to marry.

From that moment of yes to this moment of yes, indeed, you have been making promises and agreements in an informed way.

All those conversations that were held riding in a car or over a meal or during long walks – all those sentences that began with “when we’re married” and continued with “I will and you will and we will” – those late night talks that included “someday” and “somehow” and “maybe” – and all those promises that are unspoken matter of the heart.

All these common things, and more, are the real process of a wedding. The symbolic vows that you are about to make are a way of saying to one another “you know all those things we’ve promises and hoped and dreamed -- well I meant it all, every word.” Look at one another and remember this moment in time.

Before this moment you have been many things to one another – acquaintances, friend, companion, lover, dancing partner, and even teacher, for you have learned much from one another in these last few years.

Now you shall say a few words that take you across a threshold of life, and things will never quite be the same between you two.

For after these vows, you shall say to the world, this – is my husband – this is my wife.

#6 Reading

In marriage, two people turn to each other in search of a greater fulfillment than either can achieve alone. Marriage is a bold step, taken together, into an unknown future. It is risking who we are for the sake of who we can be. Only in giving of ourselves fully, and sharing our lives with another, can the mysterious process of growth take place.

Only in loyalty and devotion bestowed upon another can that which is eternal in life emerge and be known. Two among us, who have stood apart, come together now, to declare their love and to be united in marriage. The words we say today have no magic or prophetic powers.

The power of the wedding vows is merely a reflection of a reality that already exists in the hearts and minds of these two people.

----- and ---- nothing I can say, or nothing you can say to each other, will ensure a long and happy, satisfying and committed marriage

Only your love for one another, and your integrity to make your commitment real, can do that.

INVOCATION

(the action of invoking something or someone for assistance or as an authority)

#1 We give thanks for the longing for love and for the capability of loving.
We give thanks for _____ and _____, for their open hearts and willing spirits and for the example of love that they embody in our presence.
Be with them on this joyous occasion of showing their love, and may all of us who witness this occasion be blessed.

#2 Join us on this happy day and let this be a day of joy and thanksgiving as we celebrate good fortune for us all.
May we embrace all the possibilities for experiencing love that marriage will bring. We ask that the vision that _____ and _____ have of each other always be as radiant as it is today.

#3 May you be surrounded by deep love and wonderful friends.
May you live together to see your children's children.
May you be poor in misfortune and rich in luck.
May you know nothing but happiness from this day forward.

#4 We walk through this earth in search of love and understanding, and when these things make themselves felt through the gaze of another person's eyes, we can't help but be moved by it.
We want to acknowledge this miracle by recognizing that it is part of the mystery of life.
What better way to celebrate the mystery of life than in the midst of nature and these beautiful trees and flowers.
Natural beauty reminds of all that is good and pure and right in this world.
Every spring as mother nature gives re-birth to all the plants around us, _____ and _____ will continually be reminded of how pure their love is, and may that love be made new again with every changing season....

SERMON

#1 This ceremony is an opportunity for _____ and _____ to celebrate their love and to honor everyone who has given so much to them.

They have been preparing for this day all of their lives and have chosen you as their witnesses.

As their witnesses, you have the privilege of experiencing their love in its highest form.

Love is the strongest power there is.

Love can change lives and make the world a better place.

Marriage and family are the most significant bonds in our lives.

Recognizing this, we know we are called to marriage by no mistake. _____ and _____, as you step into marriage, remember the love you feel for each other right now, because marriage will be a process of change and growth. If you approach the future as a united front, you will grow together, rather than drift apart.

Remember that when you choose a particular person to make your life whole, you are choosing to be affected by their actions.

Whatever is missing in your character, will gradually develop and together you will support each other's spiritual journey and personal growth.

#2 As writer, Marcel Proust said "Let us be grateful to the people who make us happy, for they are the charming gardeners who make our souls blossom.

You are the people who make ----- and -----souls blossom, and they are so thankful to have you here to share in this celebration of the time of their lives

EXPRESSION OF INTENT/ VOWS

No 1

_____, will you take this woman to be your wedded wife, to treat her with honor and respect?

Will you love her in pain and in sorrow?

Will you share in her joy when she is happy and be true to her, forsaking all others?

(GROOM: "I DO")

_____, will you take this man to be your wedded husband, to live together according to ethical principles?

Will you love him in pain and in sorrow?

Will you share joy with him when he is happy and respect his dignity as a man, from this day forward, forsaking all others?

(BRIDE: "I DO")

No 2

_____ and _____, do you come to this union with a sincere desire to join your lives together?

(BRIDE & GROOM "WE DO.") (Face each other, holding hands)

GROOM: I _____, take you _____, to be my wedded partner in life and my one true love, to have and to hold from this day forward, for better or for worse, for richer or for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love, honor and cherish all the days of your life.

BRIDE: I _____, take you _____ to be my wedded husband, my partner in life and my one true love.

I will cherish your friendship and love you today tomorrow and forever.

I will trust and honor you.

I will laugh and cry with you and faithfully love you throughout the best and most challenging times.

I will always be there for you, as I have given you my hand to hold, so I give you my life to keep.

No 3

Are you ready to say the vows you prepared for each other?

(BRIDE & GROOM RESPOND TOGETHER: "YES".)

No 4

Groom

_____, take you _____ to be my wedded partner in life.

In your eyes, I have found my home.

In your heart, I have found my love.

In your soul, I have found my mate.

Bride

_____, take you _____ to be my wedded partner in life.

In your eyes, I have found my home.

In your heart, I have found my love.

In your soul, I have found my mate.

Optional response from the congregation:

Ladies & gentlemen here today, do you offer your support & guidance to help nurture the love that _____ & _____ have for each other.

If so, respond by saying "I do" (congregational response)

BLESSING OF MARRIAGE

#1 May the light of friendship guide your path together.

May the laughter of children grace the halls of your home.

May the joy of living for one another trip a smile to your lips.

And may the promises you make to each other hold fast and all you heart's desires be fulfilled.

#2 Let us pray:

Our hearts are filled with great happiness as _____ and _____ pledge their lives to each other.

Grant that they will always be true and loving to one another.

Temper their hearts with kindness and understanding.

May the home they are creating today be a place of love and harmony.

Bless this marriage we pray;

Amen.

---

BLESSING OF THE RINGS

#1 From the earliest times, the circle has been a symbol of completeness, a symbol of committed love.

An unbroken and never ending circle symbolizes a commitment of love that is also never ending.

As often as either of you look at this symbol, you will be reminded of your commitment to love each other, which you have made today.

#2 For thousands of years couples have exchanged rings as tokens of their vows.

These simple metal bands are not of great value in and of themselves, but are made precious by wearing them.

Your rings say that even in your uniqueness, you have chosen to be bound together.

#3 Wedding rings are an outward and visible sign of an inward spiritual grace and the unbroken circle of love, signifying to all the union of this man and this woman in marriage.

May these rings, which symbolize never-ending love for each other, be blessed and serve as daily reminders of the commitment you made today.

#4 Just as we bear witness to a written covenant with our signature, so, too, do we exchange wedding rings to seal the vows of marriage.

Wedding rings are an enduring symbol that remind us of the pledges we have made to each other and of our responsibility to honor each other by honoring our promises.

RING EXCHANGE

#1 Groom/ Bride: I give you this ring as a token of my abiding love, as a sign that I have chosen you above all others.

All that I am, and all that I have, I offer to you in joy, in thanksgiving and in sacred union.

#2 Groom/ Bride: With this ring, I thee wed.

#3 I _____, give you _____, this ring as a symbol of my commitment to love, honor & respect you. Just as this circle is without end, my commitment to you is eternal.

Fig tree ceremony

xxxxx and xxxx have decided to include a unity ceremony known as a “wedding tree”.

They chose a fig tree, because of the memories xxxxx has of growing up in an Italian household, where they always had fig trees in their yard.

On the table you will see 2 containers, gathered in the days before the wedding, with soil from the homes where they were raised.

It will be added to the pot with the young fig tree, by their mothers. as a reminder of all the love and support that brought them to this day, the joining of their families, and their personal histories.

There is water... and 2 more containers of soil from their own property... the place they call home and have already begun to build a beautiful life together. In adding these to the pot they show that it is they who take responsibility for watering and caring for this tree... wrapping it from the cold, placing it in the sunshine, making it a part of their home and insuring that it has everything it needs to thrive.

It is a metaphor for the care with which they will create their marriage. Watching it flourish over the years will be a physical reminder, that with time, love, and care...

come the fruits of our labor and life's sweetest rewards."

Music begins

Bride and Groom step behind the table

They and are joined by their Mothers

Mothers, one at a time, add their soil to the tree

They kiss the couple and then return to place

Couple add soil from their home, water the fig tree

Then return to place as the music concludes

Love Letter and Wine Box Ceremony

_____ and _____ have chosen as a couple to perform a Love Letter & Wine Box ceremony.

This box contains a bottle of wine, two glasses, and a love letter from each to the other.

The letters describe the good qualities they find in one another, the reasons they fell in love, and their reasons for choosing to marry.

The letters are sealed in individual envelopes and they have not seen what the other has written.

You have created your own very, very "romantic" time capsule to be opened on your 5th wedding anniversary.

I recommend that you keep the box in a place of honor prominently displayed in your home as a constant reminder of your commitment to each other.

_____ and _____ should you ever find your marriage enduring insurmountable hardships, you are to as a couple, open this box, sit and drink the wine together, then separate and read the letters you wrote to one another when you were united as a couple in marriage.

By reading these love letters you will reflect upon the reasons you fell in love and chose to marry each other here today.

The hope is, however, that you will never have a reason to open this box.

And if this is the case, you are to open this box to share and enjoy on your 5th year wedding anniversary!

_____ and _____ you may now seal the box.

Black and Tan

“Today, Xxxx and xxxx have chosen a Unity Ceremony that reflects the balance to their personalities, shows their skill at teamwork, their commitment to taking joy in life and of course.... their love of a good brew.

Together they will make and share what is known as a Black and Tan. The base of lighter beer will be poured first, as a foundation with the dark stout poured on top. Now this cannot be done without great care and a special spoon or tool that allows stout to float on top of the lighter ale. When poured too quickly it becomes a sloppy mess. When poured thoughtfully and with care, as in choosing a path towards the future... 2 distinct brews, each with their own flavor and personality share the glass... or the cup of life, if you like... with a little froth on top resulting from the excitement of the merger. The proportions of a Black and Tan are such that when a sip is taken from the glass, it holds the essence both beers. As with a good marriage, there is a foundation of values and individual strengths, there is often a time to lead and a time to follow, all putt forward as a united front, as equal participants in this beautiful life....

Xxxx and Xxxx will you come to behind the table and toast to your future?”

- Author, Marie April Gismondi

OPTIONAL- LIGHTING OF THE UNITY CANDLE

At this time, I would like to invite the mothers of the bride and groom forward to light a candle, offering their blessings on this relationship.

(TO THE BRIDE AND GROOM)

As you both take your candles to light the unity candle, may it signify to all that this one candle embodies the love that _____ and _____ share, and from this moment forward, you both will be as one.

#2 (TO THE GROOM)

God has ordained man as the spiritual head, as the responsible provider and as the initiator of love in this human relationship.

By his establishment, your strength must be your wife's protector, your character her boast & pride.

You must live so that she will find a haven in you for which the heart of a woman truly longs.

(TO THE BRIDE)

It is God's purpose that you be a loving, faithful wife and that you respond to your husband's tenderness with a deep sense of understanding.

It is his desire that you possess that inner beauty of soul that never fades: that eternal youth that is found in holding fast the things that never age.

(TO THE COUPLE)

Christian marriage is not merely, living for each other; it is 2 people uniting hands to serve God.

May you serve him happily, faithfully, together all the days of your lives.

You both stand before us as children of God.

It is the duty of you both to delight each in the society of the other, to remember that in interest and in reputation, as in affection, to be henceforth one and undivided.

See to it that what God has brought together, man will never tear apart.

Optional reading from : Ecclesiastes 4: 9-12

"Two are better than one because they have a good return from their labor.

For if either of them falls, the one will lift up his companion.

But woe to the one that falls when there is not another to lift him up.

Furthermore, if two lie down together they keep warm, but how can one be warm alone?

And if one can overpower him who is alone, two can resist him.

A cord of three strands is not quickly torn apart."

Optional reading from Ruth 1: 16-17

“But Ruth said, Do not urge me to leave you or turn back from following you; for where you go, I will go, and where you lodge, I will lodge. Your people will be my people, and your God, my God.”

Knot Tying Ceremony

xxxx and xxxx have just sealed their relationship with the giving and receiving of rings.

Today, their relationship is further symbolised by the tying of a fisherman’s knot; a true lovers knot, for it is the strongest there is; it’s bond will not break, becoming ever stronger under pressure.

xxxx and xxxx, will you please tie this knot!

These two cords represent your past; each of you as individuals, and the unique, and special gifts, you each bring to this marriage.

As you fasten your pieces together, these actions represent the present; this moment when you join your two lives into one common purpose. the completed knot represents your future, secure in the knowledge that your relationship will continue to be strong despite the inevitable changes life brings. Although the fisherman’s knot is one of the simplest to tie, it is also one of the sturdiest. As stress is applied, the know becomes ever stronger.

It is the goal of marriage to achieve a blending of hearts and lives, but like the spaces between these cords formed by the knot, let there also be spaces in your new life together, so each may encourage and nurture the individual growth of each other.

I ask that you now pull this rope to see it strengthen under pressure while still allowing us to see the individual cords ~ just as your support of one another as beautiful, and blessed, individuals strengthens your union.

As you hold one another in mutual concern and shared respect, may you continue holding each other tightly in your hearts, and form a strong bond, now and forever, let this knot indicate the strength of your love and be a symbol of your unity from this day forward.

Unity Painting Ceremony

Every marriage starts out as a blank canvas.

xxx and xxx this blank canvas symbolizes the start of this new journey together, the new family that you are now forming and are dedicated to build together.

Your canvas represents the passion, love and tenderness at the core of this new family, and which will be the building block of your new life as one.

May you remember the commitment of love that lies at the foundation of your new life together.

Bride and Groom Unity Sand Ceremony..... Option #1 (Bride Name) and (Groom's Name), just as these grains of sand can never be separated, our prayer for you today is that your lives together would be longer than the time it would take to separate the individual grains of sand.

(Then you can simply play beautiful music as you and your beloved slowly pour !)

Bride and Groom Unity Sand Ceremony .....Option #2

(Bride Name) and (Groom's Name), you have just sealed your relationship by giving and receiving of rings and the exchange of a kiss, and this covenant is a relationship pledge between two people who agree that they will commit themselves to one another throughout their lives

The most beautiful example of this partnership is the marriage relationship. You have committed here today to share the rest of our lives with each other. Today, this relationship is symbolized through the pouring of these two individual containers of sand one, representing you (Bride name) and all that you were, all that you are, and all that you will ever be, and the other representing you.

(Groom's Name), and all that you were and all that you are, and all that you will ever be.

As these two containers of sand are poured into the third container, the individual containers of sand will no longer exist, but will be joined together as one. Just as these grains of sand can never be separated and poured again into the individual containers, so will your marriage be.

OPTIONAL HANDFASTING:

MINISTER TO THE BRIDE:

BRIDE, please hold GROOM'S hands, palms up, where you may see the gift they are to you.

These are the hands, of your best friend, young and strong and vibrant with love, that are holding yours on your wedding day, as he promises to love you all the days of his life.

These are the hands, that will work along side yours, as together you build your future, as you laugh and cry, as you share your innermost secrets and dreams.

These are the hands, that will passionately love you and cherish you through the years, for a lifetime of happiness together.

These are the hands, that will countless times wipe the tears from your eyes: tears of sorrow and tears of joy.

These are the hands, that will comfort you when you are sick, or console you when you are grieving

These are the hands, that will tenderly lift your chin and brush your cheek as they raise your face to look into his eyes.

Eyes that are filled completely with his overwhelming love and desire for you.

MINISTER TO GROOM

GROOM, please hold BRIDE'S hands, palms up, where you may see the gift they are to you.

These are the hands, of your best friend, smooth, young and carefree, that are holding yours on your wedding day, as she pledges her love and commitment to you all the days of her life.

These are the hands, that will hold you tight as you struggle through difficult times. These are the hands, that will comfort you when you are sick, or console you when you are grieving.

These are the hands, that will passionately love you and cherish you through the years, for a lifetime of happiness.

These are the hands, that will give you support as she encourages you to chase down your dreams.

Together as a team, everything you wish for can be realized.

MINISTER

I will now tie this ribbon around BRIDE and GROOM'S hands signifying the love, trust and togetherness they will always share.

PRONOUNCEMENT

#1 _____ and _____ have come together with their hearts and minds and souls, and pledged to one and other in holy matrimony.

I now pronounce them husband and wife.

You may kiss the bride!

#2 _____ and _____, you have declared before all of us that you will live together in marriage.

You have made special promises to each other, which have been symbolized by the joining of hands, the sharing of vows and the receiving of rings.

By the authority vested in me by the State of Maryland, I now pronounce you to be husband and wife.

OPTIONAL: You may kiss the bride.

#3 By joining hands now, let it be known that _____ and _____ are joined, body and soul in this lifetime, and that this bond is sacred and eternal.

And now that you have stood before me and exchanged these rings and these vows, it gives me great pleasure to present, for the first time, Mr. and Mrs. _____!

#4 Now that you have joined yourselves to each other by solemn vows, and the giving and receiving of rings, I do now, by virtue of the authority invested in me, pronounce you husband and wife. You may kiss the bride!
